Welcome to the community of Saint Joseph's Episcopal Church.

The clergy and congregation of Saint Joseph's welcome you to the parish and to this service. We are truly pleased that you have chosen to worship with us today. If you were seeking a church just for today, thank you for celebrating with us and may God be with you as you travel. If you are searching for a spiritual home, we wish to respond in whatever way we can to help you on your journey.

In this bulletin you will find the order of this evening's service to guide you through the service as well as information about activities and events at Saint Joseph's in the coming days and weeks. Please do not hesitate to ask someone if you have a question or need help. We want you to feel at home.

The restroom facilities are located in the Narthex. There are also restrooms located in the back of our van Rooyen Parish Hall (the building to the right of the church). Please use these restrooms and not the ones in the sacristy area during services. The sacristy doors will be locked.

For those individuals that require listening assistance, Saint Joseph's Church offers specially designed hearing devices. These devices are available through one of our ushers.

Should you have any additional questions or would like more information about Saint Joseph's and our family, please ask one of our many greeters or ushers or call the church office at any time. You can email us at rachel@stjoesweb.org.

We are glad that you are here!

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

silence is kept

Almighty God, whom truly to know is everlasting life: Grant us so perfectly to know your Son Jesus Christ to be the way, the truth, and the life, that we may steadfastly follow his steps in the way that leads to eternal life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

ALL: Amen.

The First Lesson

Joshua 3:7-17

Reader: A reading from the book of Joshua, chapter 3, verses 7 through 17:

God said to Joshua, "Today I'm going to let everyone know that I am with you just as I was with Moses. You'll be in charge of the ark of the covenant." Joshua brought all the people together to tell them what God had said to him. "Here's how you know that the living God is with you: God will clear the land before us so we can live there. The ark of the covenant will go into the land first, before any of us. Let's pick twelve men, one from each tribe of Israel. And they will stop in the river, and the water will dry up. That will allow us to walk on dry land." The men who held the ark of the covenant stood there, on dry ground in the middle of the river, while the whole nation of Israel crossed into the promised land.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 148

Leader: Praise God!

Praise God from down below and praise God from up above.

Praise God from the mountaintops.

All you angels, praise God.

Everyone in heaven, praise God.

Praise God, sun and moon and all the shining stars.

Praise God, you clouds and the rain that is in them.

God created you and gave you your assignments.

ALL: Praise God from down below
and praise God from up above.

Leader: Praise God from the earth,
you sea monsters and everything in the deep seas,
fire and hail, snow and frost,
stormy wind: you all follow God's command.
Mountains and all hills,

fruit trees and all cedars!
 Wild animals and cows that moo,
 spiders and snakes and birds that soar.

ALL: Praise God from down below
 and praise God from up above.

Leader: Kings of the earth and all peoples,
 people who make the news,
 young women and men alike,
 old people and little kids together!
 All of you praise God's name.
 Let's praise God's name together.

ALL: Praise God from down below
 and praise God from up above.

The Holy Gospel

John 13:31-35

Priest: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People:* Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When they were together for their last supper and Judas had already left the house to betray Jesus, Jesus said, "God has been glorified in me now. My dear, dear friends, I will only be here with you a little longer. You will miss me, but as I have said before, I'm going where you can't come. Here is your assignment: Love each other. Just as I love you, love each other that way. People will be able to tell you are my followers if they can see that you love each other."

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

People:* Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Children's Creed

ALL: We believe in God above.
We believe in Jesus' love.
We believe the Spirit, too,
come to teach us what to do.
We believe that we can be kind and loving, Lord, like thee. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

Leader: The congregation may sit, stand or kneel for the Prayers of the People.

The 5-Finger Prayer

Leader: Together let us pray:

ALL: Glory to God as the angels sing;
thanks be to God for everything.
God, forgive me, as I forgive others;
bless my sisters and my brothers.
Last of all, O Lord, bless me, as I make my prayer to thee.

Dear God, we thank you for our time together today: for all our families gathered here and those around the world. We pray for those having birthdays and anniversaries.

God is good all the time; all the time God is good.

Dear God, we pray for all people to have clean water, a safe shelter, good food, and loving friends and family.

God is good all the time; all the time God is good.

Dear God, we pray for our community, our country and all around the world, especially those who live in Bangladesh, Bhutan and Nepal. May we all be helpers like the Good Samaritan. Be with all our leaders and help them make good decisions.

God is good all the time; all the time God is good.

Dear God, we also pray for all medical people, including doctors, nurses and everyone involved in helping people get well. We send our healing prayers for all who do not feel well; especially those on our prayer list. Please pray with me the first names of those in our parish family in need of healing. We pray for:

God is good all the time; all the time God is good.

Dear God, we pray for all who are sad because of people who have passed away and live with you. Keep them close in our memory.

God is good all the time; all the time God is good.

REPOSE OF THE SOUL:

Dear God, we pray for all your creation and creatures, that we may care for everything and remember to be gentle and kind.

God is good all the time; all the time God is good.

Dear God, we pray for our parish, St. Joseph's Church, that we will all be faithful to seeing your face in everyone we meet. Guide us as we search for our new shepherd.

God is good all the time; all the time God is good.

Dear God, we pray for all these things and for everything we are thinking and feeling but haven't said out loud.

God is good all the time; all the time God is good. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

The peace is then exchanged.

The Prayer for the Gathered

Celebrant: Let us pray for all who gather for worship this day.

ALL: God, help us to welcome every guest as if we are welcoming you. We especially give thanks for all who are present for the first time, either in this space or worshipping online, that we may delight in each other as we share your love and peace through the Gospel and in the Eucharist. Amen.

The Doxology

“Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow”

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in G major and 4/4 time. It consists of four staves, each with a vocal line and a corresponding bass line. The lyrics are: 'Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise God, all creatures here be - low; praise God a - bove, ye heav'n - ly host; praise Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost. A - men.' The score includes various musical notations such as treble and bass clefs, key signatures, time signatures, and dynamic markings.

Celebrant People

The Lord be with you. And also with you.

Celebrant People

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant People

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.

But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

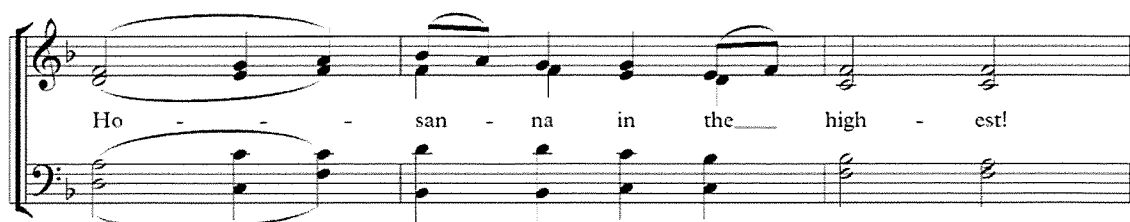

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The Sanctus

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might.

Heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est!

Blest is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.

TEXT: traditional Holy, Holy, Holy Lord. MUSIC: Bells of Norwich, Sydney Carter © 1981 Stainer and Bell Ltd., admin. Hope Publishing Co. Reprinted under OneLicense.net #A-702089. All rights reserved.

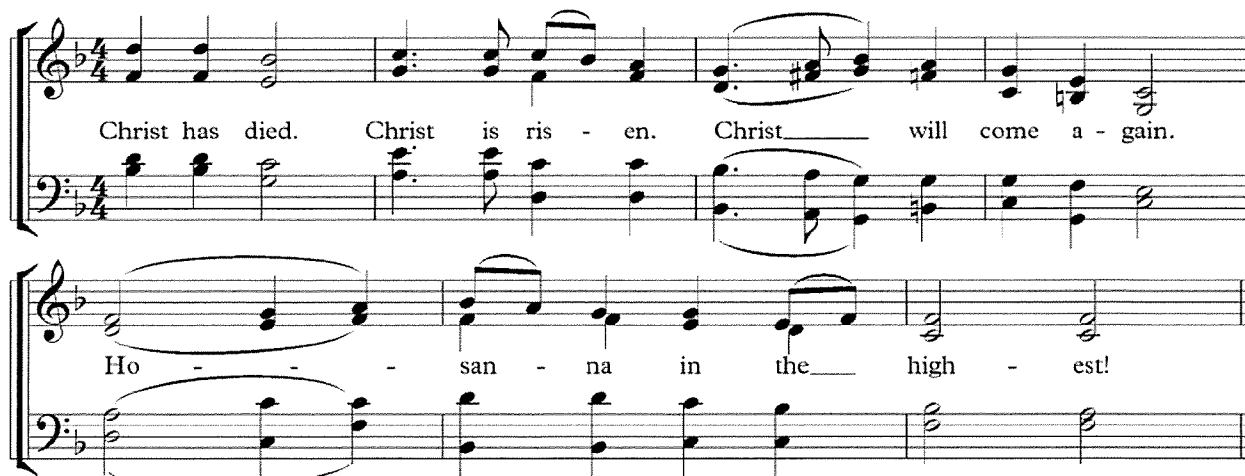

The people may sit, stand or kneel.

Celebrant: Holy, living and loving God, we praise you for creating the heavens and the earth. We bless you for bringing Noah and his family through the waters of the flood, for freeing your people Israel from the bonds of slavery, and for sending your Son to be our Redeemer. We give you thanks for Jesus who living among us, healed the sick, fed the hungry and with a love stronger than death, gave his life for others.

On the night before he died for us, Our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Let us proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant: Remembering, therefore, his life-giving death and glorious resurrection, we await your promised life for all this dying world.

Breathe your Spirit on us and on this bread and cup: carry us in your arms from death to life, that we may live as your chosen ones, clothed in the righteousness of Christ.

Through him all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, with the Holy Spirit, in your holy church, both now and forever.

A musical score for a hymn, likely 'Bells of Norwich'. It consists of two systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The first system is for the word 'Amen' and the second system is for 'Hosanna'. The lyrics are written below the notes. The music is in 4/4 time and features a simple, melodic line in the treble staff and a supporting bass line in the bass staff. The lyrics are: 'A - men. A - men. A - - - men.' and 'Ho - - - san - na in the high - est!'.

TEXT: Amen. MUSIC: Bells of Norwich. Sydney Carter © 1981 Stainer and Bell Ltd., admin. Hope Publishing Co. Reprinted under OneLicense.net #A-702089. All rights reserved.

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

ALL: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Celebrant: The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on Him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The Communion

- All baptized persons are welcome at the Lord's table to receive His Body and Blood in the form of the consecrated bread and wine.
- If you are unable to come to the altar rail for communion, please tell an usher when he or she reaches your pew that you would like Communion brought to you. The appropriate response after receiving the bread and the wine is "Amen."
- The host may be received on the tongue or in your hands. Please extend your open palms, one hand over the other, to receive in your hands.

- If you prefer to have the host intincted in the wine chalice rather than drinking from the cup, please receive the host into your hands and let it remain there. The chalice bearer will dip the host into the wine for you.
- All baptized children are welcome to receive Communion. If you desire that your child or children do not receive communion, please ask them to cross their hands over their hearts to receive a blessing.
- If you prefer not to receive Communion, and wish to receive a blessing instead, hands crossed over your heart will indicate this to the clergy or Altar server.

Would you like prayers for your special intention?

See the “Daughters of the King,” an official prayer ministry within our church, in the Lady Chapel. After receiving communion, go to the Lady Chapel (to the left facing the front of the church), where members of the Daughters are ready to offer confidential prayer for any of your needs – illness, healing, support, safe travel, or thanksgiving.

The Post-Communion Prayer

Celebrant: Let us pray.

ALL: Loving God, we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood. Now send us forth a people, forgiven, healed, renewed; that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

~~~~~

When the sacraments are to be taken to the ill or infirmed following the service, the commendation follows:

Celebrant: In the name of this congregation, I send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood.

People: We who are many are one body, because we all share one bread, one cup.

~~~~~

The Blessing of the Nurses

*The Celebrant invites the nurses to assemble at the communion rail.
Once all are assembled, the Celebrant says:*

Celebrant: Blessed are you O God in glory above all in heaven and on earth: We thank you for what you have done in the creation, preservation, redemption, and governance of the world.

We thank you for graciously calling each of us to join you in your work by loving and serving others. We thank you for bringing to us those in need of care and healing, and for enabling us to minister to them.

Today we thank you especially for the dedication, discipline, and diligence of these nurses. We thank you for calling them to this ministry -- the profession of nursing, and for guiding and strengthening them in this pursuit. We thank you for the education and training that they have received, and for the knowledge and the skill that they have acquired. We celebrate with you, O God, what they have accomplished in attaining their degrees.

We ask you now, O God, to join us in blessing them. We ask that your blessing may go with them and bless their work. Let them be a blessing, and convey your blessing, to their patients and to their co-workers.

Today we celebrate what these, your servants, have accomplished, and we rejoice in what they will do in the days ahead, until that day when you bring all good work to completion in your eternal community.

ALL: Amen.

The Celebrant then anoints the hands of each of the nurse at the communion rail, as the following prayer is said by the Celebrant:

Celebrant: In the Name of God, Compassionate and Merciful, Almighty and Righteous, we anoint your hands that you may have subtle strength and sure skill as you touch others with God's Grace.

May your fingers feel the pulse of blood through arteries and also sense the movement of emotions in the spirit. May your touch bring comfort to the body as well as solace to the soul. May you always be adept with needle and astute with pen.

God bless the work of your hands and God bless you now and always.

ALL: Amen.

*Once all the nurses have been anointed,
the Celebrant concludes with this blessing prayer:*

Celebrant: God of healing, wholeness, and holiness: these nurses reflect your glory in ability and knowledge, in passion and compassion, in strength and tenderness.

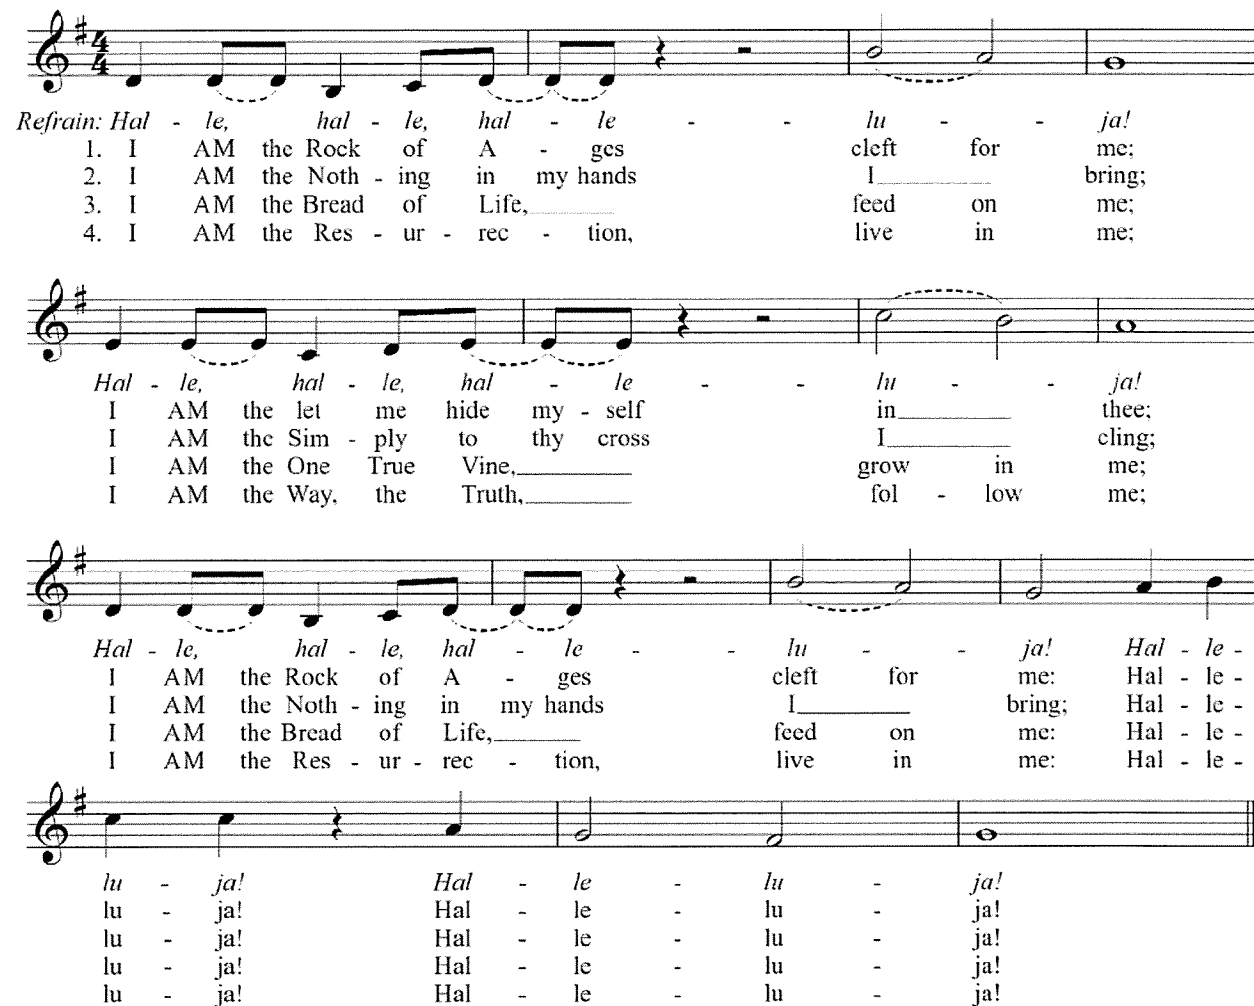

We praise you for them, and we honor them today. We ask you to watch over them, to give them your Spirit, to strengthen them in the practice of their profession and to be for them a source of hope and joy.

We pledge our prayerful and practical support to them and to their work. We pray that as they work to cure, speak to instruct or soothe, and touch to heal with your love and power that they may be renewed, blessed, and fulfilled. Lay your strong and gentle hand upon them, now and always.

ALL: Amen.
