Fr. Marty Zlatic

As I am sure you are now aware, our Diocese of Southeast Florida has begun the search process for the 4th Bishop of Southeast Florida. Based on the questions I have received in the past few weeks, here are some answers to the most common questions asked:

Why is this important? The word "Episcopal" means Bishop. We are a denomination that is led by Bishops. As our catechism states, "the ministry of a bishop is to represent Christ and his Church, particularly as apostle, chief priest, and pastor of a diocese; to guard the faith, unity, and discipline of the whole Church; to proclaim the Word of God; to act in Christ's name for the reconciliation of the world and the building up of the Church; and to ordain others to continue Christ's ministry (p. 855 in BCP)."

What is a Bishop Coadjutor? At our diocesan convention last November, the delegates approved a resolution for the election of a Bishop Coadjutor on January 31, 2015. A Coadjutor Bishop will work side-by-side with our current Bishop (Bishop Leo Frade) until he reaches the mandatory retirement age of 72 in early 2016. Once Bishop Frade retires, the Coadjutor Bishop becomes the new diocesan bishop.

What is the process for electing a bishop? The Standing Committee of the Diocese (elected by Convention) appointed a Search Committee of 18 people from across the diocese, which is charged with the end product of putting forward 5 candidates for Bishop Coadjutor from around the world by the end of October. Prior to that, opportunities are given to collect the opinions and ideas from the entire diocese regarding what we think are the prioritized needs of the church and the world in south Florida. From all of this input, a profile of our diocese is created, from which the Search Committee can begin to fashion a corresponding profile of the gifts and talents needed in our new bishop. Following that, a period of accepting names for nominations takes place, and, by the end of October, the five finalists are announced to the diocese. There is a window of time following this where others can be added to the slate of candidates as well. Then, there is a period of skype interviews and in-person sessions prior to the actual election of January 31, 2015. All the clergy who are canonically resident in this diocese, along with the lay parish delegates from each parish, vote for the new bishop. An election requires a majority of votes from both the clergy and from the lay delegates.

How is this only the 4th Bishop of Southeast Florida? Originally, all of Florida was one Episcopal diocese. As populations grew across the state, additional divisions were made to create new dioceses within the state of Florida. Originally, the Episcopal churches in Florida were administered by the Bishop of New York. However, after the civil war, a separate diocese was established here, and later, this was split further into an additional diocese. Finally, in 1969, the Diocese of South Florida split into 3 distinct dioceses: Central Florida, Southwest Florida, and our current diocese of Southeast Florida. Our diocese goes from Key West in the south to Jensen Beach in the north. The Bishops who have served as diocesan bishops here are:

- The Rt. Rev. James L. Duncan (1969-1980)
- The Rt. Rev. Calvin Onderdonk Schofield (1980-2000)
- The Rt. Rev. Leopold Frade (2000 to present)

EDITOR'S NOTE

How do we get involved in this? The most important thing right now is to pray for the guidance of the Holy Spirit for all involved: Bishop Frade, the potential candidates, the Search Committee, and those who will elect the new Bishop. There are extensive Prayers for our Time of Transition available on the diocesan website (<http://www.diocsef.org/Coadjutor/Coadjutor.shtml>). Further, there is the opportunity to complete a survey to give your input as well, which can be found at the same website. It only takes 10-15 minutes. I encourage you to pray and to participate as we look forward to where the Spirit will lead us.

Peace,
Fr. Marty

HELP WANTED!

Carpenter is the St. Joseph's newsletter, published three times per year – during Lent, late in the summer, and Advent. We also publish the Annual Report each year for the Annual Meeting.

Rich Haney There's no way that I could make it work without the dedication of Sue Oakes, who does the real heavy lifting in the layout. Sue's dedication and professionalism always make Carpenter look great, which is a good thing, because I have no talent whatsoever in that department. Sue ensures that the newsletter has a clean and unified look, and also makes sure that it's available for printing and also online through the website. She takes on last-minute changes and other fires with nary a complaint – she is quietly dedicated to the success of this ministry, and for that I am truly thankful.

It's hard to believe that I've been the editor for four years now. But, as with all things, the time has come to an end. Circumstances are such that I am unable to continue in the role of editor, and this will be my final issue. I thank the Ministry leaders and the clergy for their support in providing content for each issue – without that, it certainly wouldn't be a very interesting read!

Of course, this doesn't mean Carpenter doesn't need to continue. It's a major channel for ministries to communicate with the St. Joseph's community. So, we're looking for someone to step up and take on the position of editor. We're going into the time of year where it's quiet – the next issue won't come out until late summer, as we're preparing for the start of the school year and the Blessing of the Animals. So, there's plenty of time to ease into the role.

If you feel a calling to help continue this ministry, please let me know (you can email me at rich@haney.net). Fame and glamor can be yours!

Thank you all for your support.

Peace,
- Rich Haney

ASSOCIATE PRIEST

“Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.”
(Matthew 4:10b)

Dear family and friends of St. Joe's,

Rev. Wendy Tobias

As I write this we are preparing for Word Beyond Words at both the 9:30 and the 11:45 (Unplugged) services on the first Sunday in Lent, March 9th, a service expressed in music and movement only. What a perfect Lenten theme... to strive to live our lives carrying out the teachings of Christ in action and not necessarily with words. As we worship the Lord and all that our triune God reveals to us we follow, we serve, and we are renewed.

One way we are being called to action is in the great news we just received. Our Unplugged ministry has been selected as a recipient of The Episcopal Church's Mission Enterprise Zone Grant. This grant is available as an outcome of Resolution A073 passed by our church's last General Convention in 2012. Unplugged's core mission of reaching 20s and 30s and those who are not here yet fits with the criteria for application to this grant serving populations that may not always be served. Since beginning my time here two and a half years ago, I have been in regular communication with the Rev. Tom Brackett, Missioner for New Church Starts & Missional Initiatives with The Episcopal Church Center who encouraged us to apply for this grant. He is a true gift to our Church and I give great thanks for his ministry. Check out his website for his work at www.5marks.org. He and the committee selected by The Episcopal Church will be a great source of support and guidance in this next year. I will meet with them quarterly to receive review and guidance of our ministry plan.

Another way we will act this Lent is in our Mission Trip to the Dominican Republic March 16-22, 2014. We (20 of us!) ask your prayers for our work with the poor. Thanks to the generosity of members of our church and school, and Gulfstream School, we will be taking with us school supplies, shoes, and uniforms for two hundred children who heretofore were unable to attend school without them. We'll be serving the medical and comfort needs of those in a nursing home for the indigent elderly. We'll also be gifting them with shifts and shirts made with love by our Sassy Sewers. We'll be painting one of Fr. Sandino's churches, Santo Tomas in Gautier. We'll also experience cultural exchange activities with the students of San Jose and Santo Tomas in Boca Chica and Gautier, respectively. Our team and church have worked tirelessly. Thanks to all.

We continue outreach to our local community as well with continued work with Habitat for Humanity in one of the poorest sections of Boynton Beach. Look for our next work day coming soon. Join us in a Walk-A-Thon for Family Promise on Sunday, April 6th at 3 p.m. at South County Regional Park. $10/walker. T-shirts included. Family Promise is a local outreach we support that provides a way for homeless families with children to get back on their feet. Like Habitat, it's a hand up not a hand out.

May this Lent be one of less talk and more action, less gossip and more silent support for one another, less worry and more confidence in Christ as we truly worship in deed the Lord our God.

In Lenten peace,

Rev. Wendy

WORSHIP

THE DAUGHTERS OF THE KING SAINT MARGARET OF SCOTLAND CHAPTER

The Order of the Daughters of the King® is an international religious order of women dedicated to Prayer, Service and Evangelism. Our members pray daily for the spread of Christ's kingdom, for all members of the Order, for our parish and clergy, the parish prayer list and the Daughters' confidential prayer list. Requests may be made by calling the church office, contacting our prayer chain coordinators, Rachel Adaszak and Sherry Thomas, or completing the Prayer Request Form in the bulletin.

The Daughters of the King are present in the Lady Chapel for confidential intercessory prayer at each weekend service. All are welcome to pray with one of the Daughters for healing, thanksgiving, support or any other needs, for themselves or others.

Our members have prepared a Lenten Devotional Booklet for our Parish again this year. This collection of daily prayers and reflections, shared by our Daughters and clergy, is a wonderful resource throughout the Lenten season.

The Annual Young at Heart Luncheon will be held on Sunday, March 30th. Following a special blessing at the 9:30 service, the Daughters will honor our parishioners ages 80 and above with a gourmet lunch in the Parish Hall.

Are you called to become a Daughter of the King? "Each Daughter takes a lifetime vow to live by the Rule of the Order . . . a spiritual discipline of daily prayer, service and evangelism." Classes for training of new Daughters are being planned. Please prayerfully consider if you are called to join our Order. If you would like more information, please speak with any of our Daughters, or one of our officers (Gail Schuler, Dianne Williams, Evelyn Weicker and Gail Drane).

"Almighty God, help us to pray so faithfully
That we may draw near to you and learn your will.
Help us to serve so joyfully that others may be drawn to you."

For His Sake

MUSIC

VOICES IN BRONZE YEAR END RING REPORT 2013

Sue Tiller

Throughout the year we have been given the opportunity to enhance the worship service by offering musical selections that will complement worship and follow the liturgical seasons of the church year. Our music selections try to encompass many different musical styles from traditional hymn tunes to contemporary praise music.

This has been a truly exciting year of individual and collective growth for the Voices in Bronze, which has allowed us to stretch and reach the next level in creating music as a choir.

In March, several members of the handbell choir were able to attend the Florida State Handbell Festival held in Tarpon Springs, FL. There were over 28 handbell choirs or roughly 300 people from various church denominations who attended the two day affair. It was directed by the very talented David Harris, Director of the Raleigh Ringers. The Raleigh Ringers are an internationally acclaimed advanced community handbell choir founded in 1990. They have performed in 39 states, the District of Columbia, Canada and France. Their most popular concert, "One Winter Evening at the Meymandi", is shown regularly on PBS and they have numerous recordings to their credit. It was thrilling and a great opportunity to watch a "master" at work and have David as the director for the ringing sessions, learning how he interprets the musical score and to share his time afterwards talking with the ringers. We also had the opportunity to attend instructional and informative classes for both ringers and directors. The "singing bell" technique which involves using a wooden dowel being moved around the lip of the bell is one such technique that we learned at the festival. We used this when we played "Let All Mortal Flesh Keep Silence" this past Advent. Our Lenten and Spring offerings were all from the music used at the State Festival. It was a chance to recharge the batteries and get excited about playing bells all over again. After the season was over we used 2 weeks to share the classes we attended with each other.

After a brief summer hiatus, we came back ringing in September as we prepared for Advent. Having Georgene playing keyboards has allowed us to expand our repertoire with bells and piano playing together which we did in "I Wonder as I Wander" during Advent.

December 18th saw us on the road traveling to the Healey Rehabilitation Center in Rivera Beach for our annual Advent service project. Every year, we tease each other by wishing we played piccolos instead of handbells considering all the equipment we have to travel with. That aside, this was our fifth year in presenting a musical program roughly 1 hour in length which means the bell choir must learn almost 10 pieces of music. We perform using the full Voices in Bronze, handbell choir, Vinny as a handbell soloist and our guest pianist, Jim Poch. Fr. Monte read from Isaiah and the Gospel of Luke as we shared the Christmas story through words, song and handbell ringing. Remembering the saying from the film "It's a Wonderful Life": "Every time a bell rings an angel gets its wings", everyone was presented with a handmade bell necklace. We served the residents and staff holiday cookies and cranberry punch that we had brought with us taking time out to share the gift of music, fun and friendship. It was a wonderful evening for the patients, staff and the ringers alike.

In the coming year we will look forward to raising the bar musically and to continue offering our gifts in worship and service. More important, we are always looking for new ringers. So if you get misty eyed during the movie "It's a Wonderful Life" when they say, "Every time a bell rings an angel gets its wings"... It's time to join the Few, the proud, the ringers of St. Joseph's! Come join our Handbell choir!! No experience necessary. We range from very beginner to the more advanced ringers in an intergenerational choir setting. We meet on Monday nights from 7:15-8:30 p.m. For further information please ask any Handbell choir member or call Sue Tiller at 714-6254.

CHOIR INVITATION

David Clyde Morse

Hey wait, there's no "U" in the word CHOIR. Maybe not, but there's a place for YOU in our choirs. As our choirs continue to grow spiritually, musically, artistically and in numbers, YOU are welcome to join at any time as a short-term or long-term commitment. Some of the short-term commitments coming up this year are:

Palm Sunday and Easter – April 13 and 20
Ascension – Wednesday, May 28
Come One, Come All – Sunday, June 1

In preparation for any of these times of worship, the choir folks hope that you will consider coming and joining in on the fun-while-we-work experience. Rehearsals take place each Thursday, 7:30-9:09 p.m. Kindly consider coming to several rehearsals for a more thorough preparation.

Our Explorer Choir for children in kindergarten or grade 1 meets on Tuesdays at 4 o'clock for 45 minutes. Our Children's Choir for children in grades 2-5 meets on Wednesdays at 4 o'clock for 60 minutes and on the 2nd and 3rd Sundays just after the 9:30 a.m. service for 20 minutes.

Please see any choir member or David for more information.

EVANGELISM

HEALING PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

Bobbie Smith

It is with great joy that I report that 24 Healing Prayer Shawls were lovingly knitted/crocheted by St. Joseph's volunteers, blessed by one of our priests, and then given to friends and/or family members of our parishioners in 2013.

For those new to our parish, our Daughters of the King chapter sponsors this ministry which gives these healing shawls to those who may be in treatment or recovering from various illnesses, surgeries, or suffering from a recent loss of a loved one. This is one way we pray to bring God's comfort, love, and healing into their lives at a time when most needed.

We invite all parishioners (male, female, Youth, Seniors, & In-Betweeners) to prayerfully knit or crochet warm, cuddly shawls to be blessed by one of our priests and given with our parish's love and prayers to those in need of an extra touch of God's healing love. If you are interested in participating in this ministry by requesting a shawl for a loved one, knitting or crocheting a shawl, or making a donation to help pay for yarn, please call Bobbie Smith (736-5642) or Gail Schuler (302-7021).

In Christ's love,
Bobbie Smith

NEWCOMER BREAD MINISTRY

Visitors at each of our weekly worship services are asked to identify themselves. They are given a Welcome Bag, warmly welcomed and prayed for. In addition, they are asked to complete the card found in the Welcome Bag and place that card in the collection plate.

During the week following their visit, our local visitors/newcomers receive a small loaf of fruit/nut bread, delivered to their home, along with a welcome note and an invitation to come often to share in our worship and fellowship. The breads are lovingly baked by St. Joseph's volunteers and delivered by other volunteers.

In 2013, 57 loaves of bread were baked and delivered to those visitors/newcomers who came to visit and share in our worship. Our ministry purpose is always to extend a warm and loving St. Joseph's welcome to those who visit in the hope they will return often and become part of our parish family.

In Christ's love,
Bobbie Smith

THE MONDAY NIGHT BIBLE STUDY

The Monday Night Bible Study Group will meet on Monday, March 3 for further exploration of the Book of Revelation. We will then retire our Monday night meetings for five weeks as we will join the parish-wide

Fr. Wm. Stomski Wednesday Night Lenten Program, "Meeting Christ in Prayer". This program led by Fathers Marty and William, Rev. Wendy, and Mary Naughton will help us to explore the reading of Scripture as a way to do prayer based on the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius of Loyola. We meet at 6:00 p.m. for a simple supper and the program will run from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. The exact dates are March 12, 19, 26, April 2 and April 9. On April 21st, we will return to our study of Revelation on Monday nights at 6:00 p.m. Please join us for this exciting and new program that will wonderfully impact and grow our spiritual living.

FINANCE REPORT

Thelma Gannon

A year on the vestry is an enlightening experience. A look at our bulletin plainly shows what a volunteer driven church we are and it is the work of the vestry to give direction to this energetic and hard working group.

Many find finance, budgets and bookkeeping boring but it is my background and passion. After a few months of working with Father Marty, Erik, Charlotte and our finance committee, I began to understand the enormous task of keeping our parish viable.

Our budget is based on our pledges and I would encourage all to state their financial intentions each year to enable the vestry to be fiscally responsible and make informed decisions when looking at our diverse ministries.

I have been doing accounts payable and have revised to biweekly processing which saves time for both staff and check signers.

St. Joseph's is so much more than a Sunday place for many of us and I look forward to my second vestry year to continue to find ways to manage and report our finances to the benefit all parishioners.

Recycling and Green Faith efforts at St. Joseph's, kicked off last fall, are in motion. If you missed it in the bulletin on December 29th, Marcos Boronat provided a wonderful summary of the field trips to the Solid Waste Authority (SWA) recycling facilities. That trip gave a broader picture of what happens to discard items and the progressive efforts by SWA to convert trash into energy and other re-useable products. Recycling reduces the need for landfill space. The Policy of Green Faith for St. Joseph's was approved by the vestry and recycling guidelines were published in the bulletin. Thank you all for trying to follow these guidelines during coffee hour and other events at St. Joseph's. The new recycling containers are being used regularly, and we now are paying less for a smaller trash dumpster and a larger recycling receptacle. The goal is to make recycling easy at church and at home. Not sure about those coffee cups? If empty, please place in the cardboard box paper recycling bin. If not, it goes in the trash. Napkins and paper towels go in the trash. Even though they cannot be recycled, they biodegrade easily in our landfills. Plastic utensils and aluminum foil are currently not recyclable, so they go in the trash. Teach your neighbor or your family. If we switch to recyclable plastic utensils, we'll let you know. Occasional gentle reminders will help to guide us on what goes in what bin during coffee hour. More information on working toward becoming part of the Green Faith initiative, a national interfaith collaborative soon. Interested? Talk with Rosalind Murray, Rev. Wendy, Karen Antonucci or me.

Look for more information in future bulletins about Earth Sunday, April 27th (the Sunday after Easter). We can all support sustainability by participating in local events and bringing this message into our daily lives. What we do CAN make a difference!

Earth Hour: Turn off our lights for one hour at 8:30 p.m. on Saturday, March 29, 2014. This worldwide event creates awareness on how to save our planet and reduce our carbon footprint. Visit www.earth-hour.org for ideas on adopting a project or personal actions.

Coastal Clean up efforts: Visit <http://www.keeppbcbeautiful.org/> or <http://www.sandsifters.us/> for dates and times from late March through early May.

Dry season is at our doorsteps! This is a great time to check your sprinkler settings and check that your rain gauge is working. We are currently on a three-day-a-week schedule for watering our landscapes, EXCEPT between 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. If you need less, even better! DID YOU KNOW... less frequent watering helps our lawns grow deeper roots and survive a drought better?

The stalwart and mighty fine small group of "Garden Angels" are taking a slight rest. Part of the old butterfly garden on the south side of the church became a small shrine to the Sacred Heart. The future of the butterfly garden is in flux. Ideas are welcome. I wish to share a wonderful message on "Bringing Nature Home" by Douglas Tallamy who spoke recently in Palm Beach. It can be heard at www.youtube.com... Planting milkweed flowers supports the dwindling populations of monarch butterflies, which is one of the Earth Hour projects. Our milkweeds seem to be gone, too. As we have heard in past sermons, remember the message that we need to maintain the Earth as it sustains us. "Speak to the Earth and it shall teach thee." Job 12:8

EPISCOPALIAN CHURCH WOMEN

Gail Drane

We began the New Year by planning a theatre trip to see "Call Me Madam", a musical tribute to Ethel Merman, at the Delray Beach Playhouse. Over twenty of us attended on February 20th, after a fabulous lunch buffet provided by Cheryl Laski. Everyone had a great time and hopefully we can do this again.

We had a successful "Socks for Seniors" drive, and the socks were taken to Hamlin Place.

Scarves left over from the bazaar were laundered, ironed and put into Valentine Bags and taken to Hamlin Place in February. Thank you Thelma and Cheryl!

We also agreed to donate $1000.00 toward the Mission Trip to be earmarked for the Nursing Home in Boca Chica. There are medical needs as well as housekeeping i.e. sheets, towels etc. The toys we have been collecting since before Christmas will be brought to the D.R. By the Mission Team and given to San Jose Church.

We continue to grow, united by our love for our wonderful St. Joseph's Church.

In His Name,
Gail Drane

FELLOWSHIP

"Fellowship" was enjoyed over the Christmas Season with higher attendance than last year! A special "welcome" to all our new families and friends that were with us.

Thank you to the Hospitality Committee for putting together the Bishop's Reception that went so well!

And, as our Easter preparations begin, the Lenten suppers start every Wednesday with March 12th as the first... plan to attend!

Finally, remember to keep June 1st open for our Parish Picnic, which starts "summertime" at St. Joseph's...
